

THE CENTER FOR LOSS AND BEREAVEMENT

Part-Time Grief Therapist

Our Mission:

The Center for Loss and Bereavement is a non-profit resource of specialized knowledge and professional support that provides meaningful connection and restorative guidance for those impacted by grief.

Guiding Principles of our Mission:

- Grief is a natural, whole mind and body response to loss.
- Regardless of age, ability, or circumstance in life, people are universally confronted with matters of death and dying.
- Grief can be isolating and challenging to endure even under the best conditions.
- Distressing aspects of grief can be countered by gains in insight and knowledge, in addition to connection through peer support.

Job Description (Part-Time Grief Therapist):

- Position is permanently part-time, requiring 2 to 3 routine office shifts of availability each week, open for therapy appointments from afternoons into late evenings (1:00-9:00pm)
- Therapy work with individuals, couples, and families pre/post a death related loss, or dealing with chronic health conditions/terminal diagnosis
- Mandatory attendance of monthly meetings: Peer consultation, Clinical Supervision, and Staff Meetings; Participation in our 4-day summer camp preferred
- On-going professional education and career development goals are required to maintain license and certifications, and high-quality professional work
- We require all individuals to hold or work towards completing a study of Certification in Thanatology (CT in Death, Dying, and Bereavement) from the Association for Death Education and Counseling (ADEC)
- Therapy hours are paid as fee-for-service with admin hours compensated additionally

Benefits:

- Competitive compensation
- Support of Continuing Education (CE's) and career development goals
- Strong potential to grow with additional roles including but not limited to: support group facilitator, professional trainer, and administrative support
- Healthy, hardworking work culture and comfortable atmosphere among respected professionals
- Supportive, collaborative work relationships centered on fulfillment of our non-profit mission
- Respectful attention to work-life balance, boundaries, and wellness needs of all staff

Requirements:

- Applicant must have a Master's degree in the field of Psychology (Clinical and/or Counseling)
- Active license (preferred) or actively working towards: LMFT, LCSW, or LPC
- Experience and enthusiasm to work with children/families/couples a must!
- Have past experience working with clients surrounding death, dying, grief/loss, and trauma
