

Camp Millie

A summer bereavement daytime camp where children and young teens can find friendship, support and feel less alone in their grief of a family member

The Camp Millie Connection

During Camp Millie, children connect with peers coping with the death of a family member. The atmosphere is filled with energy and hope as campers experience a sense of belonging, trust and acceptance. Campers recognize themselves in each other, feeling less alone. We strive to bring laughter and joy into their lives while providing the opportunity to share their experiences with loss and bond with peers.

"Camp provides an excellent blend of activities and sharing, helping children feel comfortable and emotionally safe."

"Experiences like Camp Millie are so healing and enriching for them. It gives us hope."

"I love Camp Millie! Can't we come all summer long???"
